AFFAIRS IN BROOKLYN.

BROKE HIS LEGS, BUT DID NOT KILL HIMSELF.

Thomas M. Blakely, of No. 15 Pop'ar-st., while suffering from in-anity yesterday, sprang out of the second story window of his house and broke both his legs, besides receiving internal injuries. He is thirty-eight years old and stout of build. For the fortnight he had acted strangely, and had threatened to commit suicide. He was, however, well enough to go to his business as an agent of the Grand Trunk Railroad Company, at No. 145 Broadway, New-York. He rose as usual yesterday and prepared to go to business. After breakfast he suddealy rushed upstairs and opening the window sprang out. Dr. G. F. Pierce, of No. 55 Henry-st., was called to attend him. He was his family physician and said to him:

"Ah, you have done it at last, have you?" when the injured man recognized him. Mr. Blakely was taken to the Brooklyn Hospital. He and his wife boarded at the house in Poplar-st. It is not known what caused his suicidal impulse.

ONE WIFE TOO MANY FOR KOHN.

Two years ago Davis Kohn left Poland and came to this country. He left behind him a wife and one child. Kohn wrote regularly for a time, and often sent small sums of money. Several months ago the letters ceased altogether. Mrs. Kohn found him yesterday at No. 150 McKibbin-st., Brooklyn, with another woman. Kohn was greatly surprised, and offered her $50 not to bother him.

"I would go with you, my dear Lena," said he for your sake and for the sake of our dear boy, but 1 am afraid of the other woman. She would not have me alo. So you go away. Lens, and don't cause any trouble."
Mrs. Kohn went to Justice Goetting's Police Court and was advised to return to this city and begin proceedings for abandomment.

DUFFY GUILTY OF MANSLAUGHTER.

The trial of Frank Duffy, a Fort Hamilton liquor seller, for the murder of George Cunningham, on January 26, was ended in the Kings County Court of Sessions in Brooklyn last evening, and the case was given to the jury at 6 o'clock. The evidence of Martin White, the officer who arrested Duffy showed that Duffy said; "I had to do it or he would have done it to me." On the way to the town hall, as Duffy passed the body of Cunningham, he said: "It has been received from the Sabbath-school of the First is better that you should be there than I." James White testified that at the town hall Duffy said: "This is a nice predicament for a man to be in on account of a blank loafer."

The defence called several witnesses. The jury deliberated for four hours and returned a verdict of manslaughter in the first degree.

GATHERED ABOUT THE TOWN.

Mrs. Louisa Richard, who refused to answer to her married name when arrested last week, was fined $10 yesterday for horsewhipping her husband, and her mother gave $200 bonds.

Judge Dykman has vacated the order providing for public sale of "The Journal of Commerce" in the ceedings to wind up the old corporation, as its time limit had expired, and has made an order directing the acceptance of the offer of $512,000 for the property by the new corporation formed by the former owners last year.

EAST RIVER BRIDGES TO BE BUILT SOON.

THE CORPORATORS OF THE NEW CONSTRUCTION COMPANY SAY THEY MEAN BUSINESS.

Another step in aid of a greater New-York was made on Monday, when the Bridge Construction Company was granted a charter at Trenton. The company was formed for the purpose of building bridges and structures for all kinds of railways, including elevated and underground. The capital stock is $100,000. The corporators include several members of the East River Bridge Company; they are Edward Lauterbach, simon Uhlmann and John Fox, New-York; Anthony Barrett and James Langan, Brooklyn, and Ernest C. Mr. Uhlman was seen by a Tribune reporter at the office of the bridge company, in the Equitable Building. When asked whether the Bridge Construction jewel Company would become an adjunct of the East River Bridge Company, he said: "There is some intention of executing a contract between the two companies. Negotiations are pending, but they have not been consummated. The object is not solely to construct these bridges; and the construction company will continue in business after this work has been completed."
